

RILEY MOGFORD

Riley started calling and dancing more than 60 years ago while still in high school and called in the college square dance club before going into the Air Force. By then square dancing had evolved into the modern western style done now. After dancing another 10 years he began teaching and calling for the Lake Jackson Promenaders, Angleton Rockin' A's & Motivators (advance club). He has called several times for the Houston Hoedown, Texas State Festival and National Square Dance Convention. He's also a member of the Houston Callers Association.

He guest calls for the Lake Jackson Promenaders, Swingin' Seniors plus several Houston clubs. He enjoys square and round dancing with wife Betty of 45 years. They do several square dance weekends during the year. Also dancing at Kirkwood Lodge in Mo. several times. They also enjoy round dancing. They have traveled all over the U.S. & Europe. They have 3 grown children and 10 grandchildren they enjoy. Square dancing is fun to call and dance!
